Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

W. McAllister Johnson was Professor Emeritus in Fine Art and the Graduate Department of History of Art at the University of Toronto.

Dr. Johnson was an American-born art historian who studied under Erwin Panofsky, one of the 20th century's leading art historians, before coming to Canada in the 1960s to teach. He published on a variety of subjects, including French graphic art of the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries, the discipline of art history, and French mannerist painting and engraving.

Custodial history

The archival records were received as part of a donation of books and prints to Carleton University in 2005 and then in 2014.
